DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 01/07/2008 has been entered.

Remark

2. Claims 1-18 have been pre-amended and claims 19-20 have been newly added. Claims 1-20 are pending for reconsideration.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-20 have been allowed.

Reasons for Allowance

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

After an updated carefully searched and reviewed the prior arts of record, the closest prior arts of record issued to Picco and Bennington either alone or in a combination fails to teach or suggest a system comprising a television recipient device and its corresponding method, wherein Picco does not teach, suggest, or even relate to a "favorite channels list," as recited in amended claim 1. Bennington discloses a set of television channels in a favorite channels list (FIG. 8; col. 20, line 37 - col. 21, line 51), but does not teach or suggest inserting into the list an additional television channel "received via a television programming provider," as recited in amended claim 1. Rather, each channel in Bennington's favorites list is either selected directly by the viewer (col. 20, lines 48-52), or based on the category of programming, such as sports, news, etc. (col. 21, lines 10-19). That is, Bennington never discloses or even contemplates, receiving a channel designation from a television programming provider and inserting that channel into a favorite channels list. Therefore, neither Picco nor Bennington teaches or suggests, "storing [a] plurality of user-preferred television channels in a favorite channels list," "receiving via a television programming provider data corresponding to an additional channel," or "inserting the additional television channel into the favorite channels list" as presented in revised claims 1, 7 and 13.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
